A HOME SONG

I turned an ancient poet's book,
And found upon the page:
"Stone walls do not a prison make,
Nor iron bars a cage."
Yes, that is true, and something more;
You'll find, where'er you roam,
That marble floors and gilded walls
Can never make a home.
But every house where Love abides
And Friendship is a guest,
Is surely home, and home, sweet home,
For there the heart can rest.
—Country Life.

The Atchison Champion of Atchison, Kansas, of date June 16th, contains an elaborate account of the marriage of Mr. Eli Cooper, formerly of this city, and Miss Geneva Seever, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Seever, 929 Kansas avenue, of that city. The account says the wedding presents were numerous and very beautiful. Among the number were handsome and elegant gifts from the Cosmos Club, of which the bride is a popular member. Mr. Eli Cooper is employed at the Atchison Saddlery and is a young man who is highly esteemed by all who know him.

Mr. Rudolph Gerhard of Cincinnati has accepted a position in Frank Armstrong's Fifth Ward Drugstore as prescription clerk.

Owing to the low water the race of the Br'er Fox II., scheduled to take place yesterday was called off and thereby disappointing thousands of people between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati. Preparations had been made to give the King of Crafts a salute as he passed this city on his whirlwind run. She will make the run as soon as the water will permit.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

At the Recent Meeting of Bankers at Beechwood Park

At a meeting of the Bankers of Group Nine of the Kentucky Bankers' Association, held at Maysville July 8th, 1909, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

RESOLVED—That it is the sense of the Bankers of the Ninth Kentucky Group, in Convention assembled at Maysville, July 8th, 1909, that there is neither necessity for, or justice in, the establishment of Postal Savings Banks by our Government, and that it is our unanimous opinion that the enactment of such socialistic laws are sure to prove detrimental to our Country, Business and People.

Offered by Hon. J. N. Kenoe.

RESOLVED—That the Bankers of the Ninth Kentucky Group, in Convention assembled at Maysville, Ky., July 8th, 1909, heartily endorse the improvement of the water ways of our country by the Federal Government, and we especially endorse and urge the improvement of the Ohio and Big Sandy Rivers.

Offered by Hon. J. N. Kenoe.

RESOLVED—That the members of the Ninth Group of the Kentucky Bankers' Association hereby express their hearty appreciation of the delightful manner in which the Maysville Bankers have so freely contributed to their entertainment, and that they especially wish to acknowledge their indebtedness to the beautiful young ladies who have ornamented the meeting with their presence and dispensed so bountifully the hospitality of the occasion.

Offered by F. M. Fulkerson
and Hon. Ben L. Bruner.

RESOLVED—That Group Nine of the Kentucky Bankers' Association endorse the policy of State Bank Examination, believing that it will not only promote the best interest of the Banking Business, but that it will be a telling step towards the defeat of the proposed Postal Savings Banks.

Offered by F. M. Fulkerson.

RESOLVED—That William Etel of Lawrence Creek was another Fifth-of-July balloon tag finder. His prize was a bottle of whisky from M. C. Russell Co. Three balloons were sent up Friday night, one calling for a prize from the drugstore of J. Jas. Wood & Son. The tag was found by a man residing some distance back from Aberdeen, who was in the city early Saturday morning after big goods.

Offered by Hon. J. N. Kenoe.

RESOLVED—That the Bankers of the Ninth Kentucky Group, in Convention assembled at Maysville, Ky., July 8th, 1909, heartily endorse the improvement of the water ways of our country by the Federal Government, and we especially endorse and urge the improvement of the Ohio and Big Sandy Rivers.

THE San Francisco Chronicle says: "The Washington correspondents who are talking about a veto of the Tariff Bill appear to be quite oblivious of the fact that the failure to enact a new measure would leave the Dingley Act in force, which would very well suit most of the standpatters, who believe that the country prospered under its workings and that if not tinkered with it would prove a very good protector of American industry for some years to come."

I HOPE that soon all our Public Schools will provide, in connection with the school buildings and during school hours, the place and time for the recreation as well as the study of the children.—Theodore Roosevelt.

IT WAS EDMUND BURKE, we think, who said: "You cannot indict a people." We do not mean to indict the Chinese as a race. But at times there seems to be something lacking in the Chinese character—as we see it in America, at least. Emotionalism, chivalry and sentiment are not there, while brutality and pagan indifference go to make up the balance. And yet there must be a soul that lives behind that grinning, yellow mask!—Times-Star.

THE new ocean liner, "Adriatic," is said to be a veritable ocean queen. She has nine steel decks, a gymnasium, electric elevators, a complete telephone service, and all the comforts of home for 3,000 passengers.

A WOOL clip of 60,000,000 pounds in the State of Wyoming this year is not an unfavorable showing for a "decadent industry."

PRESIDENT LUTHER H. GULICK of the Playgrounds Association, says:

"An education that only develops the mind and leaves the body weak and ill nourished, is no right education. The girls must be the wives and mothers of tomorrow. If they grow up unequal to that great task all their knowledge of French and Latin isn't going to free us from the responsibility of doing them a great wrong."

THE utter selfishness and injustice of the Democratic stand on the Tariff could never be better illustrated than in Kentucky, where the Bourbons are clamoring for free tobacco and protected hemp.

THE St. Louis Globe-Democrat remarks that "it is a wise politician who can tell in advance whether a Senatorial primary is to be obligatory, advisory, admonitory or prohibitory."

IF there is in all this country a non-partisan on the Tariff question he must be either a tramp, a multi-millionaire or an inmate of some institution for mental defectives.—American Economist.

THE new bust of ex-President ROOSEVELT is ready for the Senate Chamber. Whenever the sessions become too dreary all that will be necessary will be to show it to BAILEY and TILLMAN.—Omaha Bee.

A WESTERN paper is quite right in concluding that if we have a low Tariff it will not be in force more than two years after its enactment. As often as this country has been afflicted with a Tariff that did not give adequate protection to our industries, as often has it improved the first opportunity to get rid of it.

"I understand that you called on the plaintiff, Mr. Barnes. Is that so?" questioned Lawyer Fuller, now Chief Justice!

"Yes," answered the witness.

"What did he say?" next demanded Fuller.

The attorney for the defense jumped to his feet and objected that the conversation could not be admitted in the evidence. A half-hour's argument followed, and the Judges retired to their private room to consider the point.

An hour later the Judges filed into the Court-room and announced that Mr. Fuller might put his question.

"Well, what did the plaintiff say, Mr. Barnes?"

"He weren't at home, sir," came the answer without a tremor.

YOUR BACKACHE WILL YIELD

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Rockland, Maine.—"I was troubled for a long time with pains in my back and side, and was miserable in every

Are You
After the Best?

When it comes to bed buying, the best is cheapest, especially when it doesn't cost any more than an uncertain quality that may be short-lived.

Sanitaire Iron Beds $2.50 to $25
GUARANTEED TEN YEARS.

This mark on a bed or crib means you have the best that money can buy. The makers of these beds must keep up the quality or they could not afford to give an absolute ten-year guarantee.

Sanitaire Beds will last a life time. They are made in all sizes; are extra strong; stand rigid; casters are ball-bearing, steel or brass. Sanitaire designs are exclusively artistic. Finishes are varied to meet every taste, and all are hard as flint, impossible to chip or scale off; dust proof and germ proof.

For health, beauty and durability, select a Sanitaire. We give a ten-year guarantee certificate with every Sanitaire Bed.

BEWARE OF DISPUTE

END OF QUARREL ALWAYS HARD TO FORESEE.

King Solomon's Advice to "Leave Off Contention Before it is Meddled With" Worth Heeding and Remembering.

Avoid the beginning of quarrels."

No better advice could be given to a newly wedded couple. King Solomon, with all his wisdom, never spoke a truer word than that "the beginning of strife is like the letting out of water; therefore leave off contention before it is meddled with." Most quarrels, conjugal or otherwise, begin with trifles, and lo! "Behold how great a fire a little matter kindleth!" Avoid disputes. "It is the first step which counts," for which sound reason, do not take it!

An old man, who, as a criminal lawyer of many years' standing, had wide and deep acquaintance with human nature, used to tell his daughters: "Make up your minds to the fact that your husbands are but men, although they are gentlemen, and take heed how you provoke them to anger. It takes two to make a quarrel; never be one of the two, and remember that your dignity best is preserved by silence when you are provoked.

"Never forget that you take your husband for better, for worse, and if, which heaven forbid, worse comes, at least bear it like a Christian gentleman. You will find the recipe in Matthew 5, beginning at verse 39."

There is no bit of wisdom which prospective brides and grooms more profitably may take to heart than that while quarrels between lovers who are still a-courting may successfully be patched up as good, even better than new, provided always that neither of the lovers meant malice, and also that both are affectionate and forgiving of disposition, the genuine matrimonial family row rarely is followed by kisses, unless there has been heart burning which seers, and acrid bitterness of spirit which long endures under the sweet of reconciliation.

A tempest of tears and temper not often is the forerunner of clear-shining after rain. On the contrary, it is far more likely to stir up lasting dissension and anger.

How can it be possible that love of any sort can be made more precious by disputing and wrangling, by contradiction and continual disagreeing? During the days of courtship it is possible that it may pass for playful teasing, when hearts are soft and heads even softer; but after marriage there is danger that each will be ready to assert his or her rights, and each be less willing to yield to the other.

Lovers' quarrels usually are either ebullitions of jealousy, mostly due to selfishness, or else they come from what somebody has called "the leakage of bad temper," a most undesirable quality for either husband or wife. If lovers cannot avoid quarrels before marriage there is small hope that they will be able to eschew them afterward.

Poe and Darwin Interest Berlin.

A number of interesting events in the German book and literary world have occurred during the past week. Everywhere there are evidences of the recognition by Germans of Darwin and Poe, the seventy-fifth birthday of Haeckel having stirred up William Börsche, Max Apel, Edmund David, Bruno Wölfe, Rudolf Penzlin and F. Naumann to prepare a volume of essays on Darwin and his time (Berlin); Die Hölfe, and Hedda and Arthur Moeller-Henck having translated Poe's works, in ten volumes (Münich); J. C. F. Haarmann's Verlag), and written a biography, in which they accept practically the French view of the author of "The Raven," and place him, with Goethe and Falzéac, at the dawn of his country's art. Theodor Etzel has added an attractive volume of translations, "Edgar Allan Poe; Gelehrte" (Münich); Georg Müller, which echo very faithfully the rhythm and sense of the originals—From a Berlin Letter to the New York Times.

Mantle Rays Penetrate.

"There are X rays and N rays and there are also rays from those mantle rays that you put on gas burners to improve the light."

The speaker, a photographer, pointed to a batch of forged plates.

"I know to my cost that there are mantle rays," said he. "For a month I stored new plates in a closet along with a mantle, and all of them got forged. The mantle, you see, contains thorium, a radioactive substance that penetrates a cardboard plate box as easily as it penetrates glass. I didn't know that till my doctor told me so recently. My ignorance cost me over 100 plates."

While other forms of Artificial Lighting have been content to twitter with bird-like repetition "cheap, cheap, cheap," Electric Light has been loudly singing the praises of its sun-like glow and whiteness, stamped on the public mind as the "Light of Quality," with the advent of the Tungsten Lamp it now challenges comparison of efficiency and cost. : : : : :
